THE BARGE LINE. We direct the attention of our read ers to a communication on our fourth so page, setting forth the advantages of a ge line such as has recently been ganized in this city. It is from the pen of a gentleman all his life long identified with the freighting interests of the country, and who is well and favorably known therewith. We commend it to the careful consideraion of our commercial readers, as worthy their closest, attention. It is full of facts and figures that endorse and sustain the barge line.

CITY FINANCIAL AFFAIRS. We have suggested a way out of the nancial difficulty into which our city has been thrust by the ill-advised injunction of FARRINGTON and others. We have suggested a special tax which will meet the case in all its bearings. It will enable the city to pay the inerest on its bonds and prevent what o many desire-the farther issuance of scrip; and it will enable the Mayor and Board of Aldermen to sustain existing scrip up to its present value. We can realscrip from 33 to 88 cents, We can imagine that in their zeal to sustain from falling back from 58 to 28 centsthe figures at which they were selling when the LEFTWICH administration arrived.
